"Smarter Drivers... Better Jobs!"

"Rosedale Transport is a proud member of the truckdriver.com website. It's easy to use and the results are incredible. As our front line defense in searching, locating and hiring good qualified drivers "truckdriver.com" is always used first when the need arises for all types of drivers making my job much easier. We recently required several drivers for our Quebec and Montreal terminals and within a few days we had collected over fifty applications offering quality drivers. Needless to say, the positions were filled quickly and easily with professional people. Do yourself a favour and try this program out."
